Do You Open Your Mouth

Like a young bird and gulp down whatever food or medicine may be offered you? Or do you want to know something of the composition and character of that which you take into your stomach whether as food or medicine?

Most intelligent and sensible people now-a-days insist on knowing what they employ whether as food or as medicine. Dr. Pierce believes they have a perfect right to insist upon such knowledge. So he publishes broadcast and on each bottle wrapper, what his medicines are made of and verifies it by analysis. This he feels he can well afford to do because the more the ingredients of which his medicines are made are studied and understood the more will their superior curative virtues be appreciated.

For the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses, irregularities and derangements, giving rise to frequent headaches, back-aches, dragging-down pain or distress in lower abdominal or pelvic region, accompanied, oftentimes, with a debilitating, pelvic, catarrhal drain and kindred symptoms of weakness, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy. It is equally effective in curing painful periods, in giving strength to nursing mothers and in preparing the system of the expectant mother for baby's coming, thus rendering childbirth safe and comparatively painless. The "Favorite Prescription" is a most potent, strengthening tonic to the general system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. It is also a soothing and invigorating nerve and cures nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuritis, hysteria, spasms, chorea or St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms attendant upon functional and organic diseases of the distinctly feminine organs. A host of medical authorities of all the several schools of practice, recommend each of the several ingredients of which "Favorite Prescription" is made for the cure of the diseases for which it is claimed to be a cure. You may read what they say for yourself by sending a postal card request for a free booklet of extracts from the leading authorities, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and it will come to you by return post.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is a constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the local. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is the Constitutional. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a local weak and inflamed mucous membrane remedy. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerves, all tissues, and all blood elements. The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, brings about internal rest and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, brings about internal strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—asa general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well.

TWO YOUNG WOMEN FIGHT.

The details of a desperate fight between two young women, who are wives of well-known farmers, were learned in Winchester yesterday.

They met on the public road two miles from Winchester on last Saturday evening, their respective husbands accompanying them. Just as one vehicle overtook the other the women leaped out, and a moment later a terrific fist fight began.

One of the women opened with a vicious swing that landed on the other's jaw, and the latter retaliated with a hard body blow. For 30 minutes the two women pounded each other in the road, ankle deep in dust.

Several times the combatants clinched. Then, falling to the road, they rolled over and over in the dirt. Locked in each other's embrace, they bit, scratched and kicked, while a cloud of dust enveloped them.

In the meantime the two husbands stood nearby and held the horses, allowing their wives to fight it out. It was a fight to the finish, the women finally stopping from exhaustion.

One of the women had a black eye and a cut across her face, made by the finger nail of her opponent, and a piece was chewed out of her arm. The other was covered with bruises, cuts, and scratches and they were scarcely able to walk. With the blood flowing from numerous wounds on their faces and their clothes torn into ribbons and covered with dust and dirt, the women were bundled into carriages by the two husbands and taken home. Bad blood has existed between the two women for several years, and they repeatedly threatened to "do each other up" in the event they met on the road. When they passed on the streets in Winchester they would make grimaces and shake their fists at each other.

Mrs. Laura Lineberg, wife of Benjamin Lineberg, and Mrs. Emma Stoller, wife of James Stoller, prosperous Frederick county farmers, were the women engaged in the fight.

NO CAUSE OF ALARM.

The French government greatly deprecates the alarmist view of the Japanese-American situation taken by a section of the Paris press, and an inspired statement, based presumably on the foreign office's advice, placing the most optimistic construction upon the plans to dispatch the American battleship fleet to the Pacific, was given out yesterday afternoon, as follows:

"Much surprise is manifested in diplomatic circles over the excitement caused by the plan to send the American battleship fleet to Pacific waters. Instead of the step causing alarm there is reason to believe that the decision of the American government implies that the negotiations proceeding between the Washington and Tokio Cabinets is making favorable progress. The American government, beyond doubt, would not order this naval movement if it was likely to embarrass the negotiations which have been going on for some time between the two governments."

The semi-official Temps adopts the same line. After a careful review of the events leading up to the decision to send the fleet to the Pacific the paper says it was inevitable and adds:

"The redistribution of the fleet creates inquietude, yet the right of the United States to send its ships where it pleases is incontestable and is no more to be criticized than the redistribution of the British fleet three years ago."

Wise Counsel from the South.

"I want to give some valuable advice to those who suffer with lame back and kidney trouble," says J. R. Blankenship, of Beck, Tenn. "I have proved to an absolute certainty that Electric Bitters will positively cure this distressing condition. The first bottle gave me great relief and after taking a few more bottles I was completely cured; so completely that it becomes a pleasure to recommend this great remedy." Sold under guarantee at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store.

ALLEGED ACCOMPLICE.

Late yesterday the New York police arrested Harry Kirkstein, a telegraph operator, 22 years old, on a charge of acting with Mrs. Laura Carter in receiving and disposing of $5,000 stolen from the Windsor Trust Company by Chester B. Runyan.

Kirkstein was examined last night by Assistant District Attorney Corrigan. He said that he had lived with Mrs. Carter at a flat in west Sixty-sixth street for about a year and a half until recently she told him she had a "good thing" and he left her.

On the evening of the Fourth of July, he said, Mrs. Carter telephoned him to meet her the next morning, which he did. She told him, he said, that the "good thing" was Chester B. Runyan, the missing teller of the Windsor Trust Company, and that he had given her $5,000, which she had in her handbag. Kirkstein said he advised her to take the money to the trust company and tell the officials where Runyan was.

She replied, Kirkstein said, that she would return the money to Runyan and then give him up. He did not see the money, and had no idea whether she returned it to Runyan.
